

International Studies Seminars

The European Union from the perspective of Central and Eastern European Countries

Poland and Hungary: enfants terribles of the European Union in the context of their political systems' controversial changes

May 22nd, classroom 2A, 5-7 p.m.

Sub-regional integration within the European Union: the case of the Visegrád Group

May 23th, classroom 2A, 4.15-6.15 p.m.

“What we give – what we get” – the balance of EU Membership

May 25th, classroom B, 5-7 p.m.

Three lessons held by prof. Agnieszka Nitszke (Jagiellonian University – Krakow)

Political Science Department
via Gabriello Chiabrera, 199

Attendance of all three lessons is compulsory for the attribution of 1 ECTS