International Studies

- LM-52

The Master of Arts in International Studies (MAIS) provides students with the tools to understand and operate in the international environment. The teaching method ensures that students are constantly engaged in the classroom, where they can experience different approaches to the study and analysis of key international dynamics and challenges. The MAIS degree opens up career opportunities in diplomacy, both at the national and at the international level, NGOs, corporations and think tanks.

APPLY FOR

- SCHOLARSHIPS AND OTHER BENEFITS

It is possible to apply for a scholarship and housing through the Regional Institution for Study Rights Lazio Disco. Those applicants who aren't eligible for a scholarship or students that could not apply within the deadline, can still ask for a reduction of the university fees according to the information available on Roma Tre website (Tuition Fees).

- VISA (ONLY FOR NON-EU STUDENTS)

Register on the University platform that enables students to both apply to the University and to request a visa for study purposes.

- RESIDENCE PERMIT (ONLY FOR NON-EU STUDENTS)

No later than 8 days after arriving in Italy, students must apply for a residence permit for study reasons at the local Police Headquarters. The application can also be submitted at the Post Office, by filling out the relative application forms. Several agencies and qualified charitable institutions may also provide assistance with regard to the submission of the forms. Upon application, the student shall be identified and asked to pay a fee for the residence permit issuing procedure, which amounts to a total of approximately 107.50 Euros. For further info on this subject, please see Study in Italy.
