

ALBERTINA NANIA

Rome, Italy

Phone Number: +39 3664360700

albertina.nania@uniroma3.it

PROFILE

PhD in Political Science with a specialization in international monetary systems, global liquidity and macro-financial analysis. Research experience in international financial governance, sovereign liquidity and monetary cooperation. Involved in European research projects and academic activities, with a focus on policy-oriented economic analysis and international economic relations.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Research Fellow – Roma Tre University (2026–2027)

Research activity on Italian economic diplomacy and international economic transformations in the 1970s and 1980s. The project focuses on the analysis of economic theories and policy choices in the context of global economic change.

Project Officer – Jean Monnet CIDRA (EU Project) (2024 – Present)

In this role I coordinate the activities of an EU-funded research project focusing on EU–Africa economic relations and development finance governance. My responsibilities include organising research activities, preparing analytical reports on international economic cooperation and development finance, and managing relations with academic and institutional partners across Europe and Africa.

Teaching Activity — Master EUTeach (2024-2025)

Lectures on the international monetary system, multilateral development banks and Special Drawing Rights within the framework of postgraduate teaching activities.

Teaching Assistant– LUISS Guido Carli (2024–2025)

Support to teaching activities in courses related to European project design and management, including preparation of teaching materials and coordination with students.

Junior Visiting Fellow – Fondazione CSF (2025–Present)

Research activity on international economic governance and the evolution of global financial cooperation, with a focus on policy-oriented analysis.

Visiting Research Fellow – Université de Picardie Jules Verne (2025)

Research on Special Drawing Rights and development finance within the international monetary system, with particular attention to the role of multilateral institutions in global financial cooperation.

EDUCATION

PhD in Political Science – Government and Institutions Track

Roma Tre University | 2023 – 2025 XXXVIII Cycle

Dissertation: Governing Global Liquidity: The Rise and Fall of Multilateral Monetary Reform, 1967–1997.

Advanced Professional Course in Economic Intelligence and National Security

SPES Academy | 2025

Focus on economic security, geopolitical competition and strategic economic policy.

Master's degree in international relations – 110/110 cum laude

Roma Tre University | 2020–2022

Thesis in international economic relations.

Bachelor's degree in political science

Roma Tre University | 2016–2020

AWARDS

Best Paper Award (Under 40), AISPE Conference, 2025.

SKILLS

I have experience in macro-financial and institutional economic analysis, with particular attention to global liquidity, international monetary systems and development finance. For quantitative analysis I work primarily with Stata and Microsoft Excel. My research activity includes policy analysis, preparation of institutional reports and academic writing.

LANGUAGES

Italian (native), English (C2), Spanish (C1), French (B2), German (A2).